

EXHIBITOR OF THE DAY

Bella Bova of Basehor, Kansas, is the Valley Vet Exhibitor of the Day for Friday, November 8.

Bella is at Color Breed Congress for her first time with her Buckskin stock gelding, INVEST N LEAGUER. His nickname is Sampson, who Bella calls "Sam."

Both 10 years old, Bella has been showing Sam for three years.

Sam chose her, Bella said.

"We had gone to Texas to find a new horse, with no luck. But when we went to a barn in Missouri and saw Sam, we knew we were meant for each other."

Riding horses is sweet, but Bella has another hobby she enjoys.

"I love riding Sam but when I grow up I would like to own my own bakery or be a teacher. My favorite things to bake are cookies or cupcakes," Bella said.

"I definitely still want to show horses though."

Currently in fifth grade, her favorite subject is art.

Congratulations to Bella Bova! Each day at Color Breed Congress an exhibitor will be selected to be featured on the official PtHA website at www.pinto.org and its Facebook pages. Each winner receives a $100 Valley Vet gift card.
